LEXINGTON:—PRINTED BY DANIEL BRADFORD. (On Main Street).—PRICE TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, PAID IN ADVANCE.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That there shall be a general meeting of the proprietors on the first Monday in June, and the first Monday in December, every year, in the city of Washington; to which meeting the president and directors shall make a report, and render distinct and full accounts of all the proceedings, and on finding, them fairly and justly stated, the proprietors, then present, a majority of them, shall give a certificate thereof, and at such half yearly general meetings, after leaving in the hands of the treasurer such sum as shall be judged necessary for repairs, improvements or contingent charges, shall divide the net profits of the said canal an equal dividend of all the net profits line from the wharfage and tolls hereby granted, shall be ordered and made to, and among all the proprietors of the said company, in proportion to their several shares.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That for and in consideration of the expenses the said proprietors shall incur, not only in cutting canals, but in erecting locks, and in maintaining and keeping the same in repair, and in temporary enlargements and improvements of the same, that for the space of fifty years, when this act shall cease on repayment of the principal of the sums expended, the company is hereby authorized to collect the same rates of wharfage on all articles and materials landed on each side of the canal, as are now legally received at the wharfs of Georgetown: And it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors, for fifty years, and as much longer as their principal sum expended remain unpaid, to demand and to receive, at the most convenient place for all commodities carried through a lock or locks of the canal, a toll not exceeding half a dollar on each loaded boat, and a quarter of a dollar on each loaded row; but no toll to be paid returning. But when the wharfage shall produce the annual interest of eight per cent. on the sums expended by the president and directors, exclusive of the tolls, then the tolls shall cease, and the canal and locks thereof shall be entirely free for passage; and when the wharfage shall exceed the annual interest of twenty per cent. then the president and directors shall appropriate one half of the surplus to such public purpose as Congress may direct, or reserve the same as a fund to pay off the principal: Provided always, That all public property shall pass free of toll and wharfage.

Sec. 18. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That in case the said Washington company created by this act shall not, within the term of five years, complete said canal, in such a manner as to admit boats drawing three feet of water to pass through the whole extent of said canal, that the said canal shall revert to the United States, and all right and authority hereby granted to said company shall cease and terminate.

AN ACT
Making an appropriation for the support of the Navy of the United States, for the year one thousand eight hundred and two.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the following sums, including any sum which may have been, or might be expended during the present year, by virtue of any former appropriation, be, &c. the sum: are hereby respectively appropriated to defray the expenses of the navy of the United States during the year one thousand eight hundred and two; that is to say:

For the pay and subsistence of the officers, the pay of the seamen, provisions and repairs, five hundred and eight thousand two hundred and twenty-six dollars.

For medicines, instruments, and hospital stores, ten thousand dollars:

For the purchase of ordnance and other military stores, twenty thousand dollars.

For salaries of superintendents of navy yards, storekeepers and clerks, fire rent, hire of labourers, &c. twelve thousand dollars.

For the purchase and expense of transportation of timber, and other materials, including ordnance for the twenty-four gun ships, one hundred and ninety thousand five hundred and seventy-five dollars:

For the improvement of navy yards, docks and wharves, fifty thousand dollars:

For contingencies, ten thousand dollars:

For the pay and subsistence, including provisions, for those on shore, and forage for the staff of the marine corps, seventy-one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four dollars, and forty cents:

For clothing for the same, fifteen thousand five hundred and nineteen dollars.

For military stores for the same, one thousand two hundred and twenty-four dollars, and sixty cents:

For the quarter master's department, comprising quarters for the officers, and barracks for the men at different stations, fuel, rationary, camp utensils, &c. seven thousand and fifty-one dollars:

For medicine, medical services, and hospital stores, one thousand dollars.

For officers travelling expenses, armourers and carpenters bills, and other contingent expenses, two thousand five hundred and fifty dollars.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said several sums of money, here before specifically appropriated, and amounting together to the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars, as shall not have been expended by virtue of any former appropriation, shall be paid, first, out of any balance remaining unexpended of former appropriations for the support of the navy; and secondly, out of any monies in the treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated by law.

From the Gazette de France.

Every body, perhaps, has not remarked with the same attention a passage in the first dispatches from General Leclerc, in which he observes, that the guns, cannon, and powder which were found at the Cape, were furnished by the United States of America.

Perhaps it would be unjust to found upon this circumstance a serious reproach against a government supposed to be attached to France by principles, by integrity, and by a just sense of gratitude. But if we connect this fact with several other things; if we apply it to a general system of politics adopted by the United States under the Presidency of Mr. Jefferson's predecessor, the above mentioned passage in General Leclerc's letter may not appear insignificant.

Some months ago we published in this paper an anecdote, which, though it remained unknown for a long time, did not the less deserve serious attention. It related to an interview which took place at St. Domingo between Toussaint Louverture and the commercial agent of the United States, at the moment in which the result of the famous battle of Marengo had been made known. The plan of the American government was then to act in concert with the British, to determine the Negro General to declare the independence of St. Domingo; & that was one of the principal instructions of the Commercial Agent. Conferences continued to take place upon this subject, when Toussaint, informed of what had taken place in Italy, changed his resolution, and cried out in accents of despair—Moi, pas connaitre ce qu'il y a de fait—Marengo la terreur moi— (I know not what all this will produce: but this Marengo kills me) and upon this the negotiation was put an end to, or at least suspended.

That Mr. Jefferson, became since President of the Federal Government, has not followed the political system of his predecessor—that he has adopted a mode of conduct less Machiavelian, appears incontrovertible. But the ideas either more or less liberal, of a man who is placed for a time at the head of an elective government, ought not to be of any weight in the judgement which may be formed upon the order of things to which he belongs eventually; and when it is necessary to examine the general interests and situation of America, the private opinion of Mr. Jefferson becomes almost a matter of indifference.

If we pay attention to the rapid increase of the population, the industry, trade, and wealth of the United States, we cannot avoid reflecting that that power is destined one day to rule over the new world, and to place under its yoke all the West India Colonies. Is it not the interest of Europe to endeavor, while it is yet time, to remove that epoch to a greater distance; and does not policy require that there should be established as soon as possible upon the continent of America, a barrier against the presumed ambition of a people to whom nature has promised the empire of half the world.

The idea of re-attaching Louisiana to the domain of France is perhaps, of all political conceptions, the wisest and most important. England herself could not avoid applauding the plan of establishing on the terra firma of America, an European power capable of opposing an insuperable barrier to the torrent which might one day, without that present spread from North to South, cover Mexico, the West Indies, Canada, and that Europe out from the passage of the Atlantic. Spain, enfeebled, has too many distant possessions to defend and preserve, to keep the United States confined within its present limits. Great Britain herself is not in a condition to form a military establishment upon Terra Firma, capable of infusing the pretensions and rights of Europe upon that part of the world.

It is true that the government of the Union has promised to other nations to remain within its present limits. But we do not know, that in politics the execution of these kinds of promises remains always subordinate to a multitude of events and circumstances which cannot be foreseen? And besides, though the Federal Government should renounce for a century all system of aggrandizement, is it nothing to occupy a territory extended enough for the support of 100 millions of inhabitants? Is it nothing to rule over 500 leagues of maritime coast, to have illies under the eye and hand, to reign upon the Atlantic, and to see itself separated from the South Sea only by savage nations ready to receive the yoke from whatever power shall appear before them in arms? What means this project of civilizing the Indian tribes; and to whom would these people belong but to the government who takes upon itself to civilize them, and which has no rival to fear, being itself alone established in the centre of the new world.

Let it not then be imagined that the plan of uniting Louisiana to the dominion of the French republic is dictated by ambition, or that it is a part of a pure and simple system of aggrandizement. The preservation of the European possessions in the West Indies has rendered this plan necessary; and the interests of all the maritime powers of Europe, is to see the strongest amongst them form an establishment on the continent of America, sufficiently imposing and important to serve as a counterpoise to the domination of the United States.

VALUABLE MEDICINES, AT REDUCED PRICES.

THE public are respectfully informed, that the ATENT MEDICINES lately in the hands of DR. H. C. HARRIS, with future be held by Mr. NATHANIEL HART, of Lexington, Messrs. M. & P. having relinquished the agency in his favor. A fresh supply of the following are received from LEE & CO. Baltimore.

DR. HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

A sovereign remedy for Colds, obdurate Coughs, Asthma, sore Throats and approaching Consumption. 20 Parents who have Children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH. This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable. The Elixir is so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficult arises in taking it.

INFALLIBLE AGUE AND FEVER DROPS.

For the Cure of Agues, remittent and intermittent Fevers. Thousands can testify of their being cured by these drops, after the bark and every other medicine has proved ineffectual; and not one in an hundred had occasion to take more than one, numbers but a half a bottle.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Henry C. Harris, County, Delaware. I have given my ague drops to a number of patients this fall, and with excellent success; in some obdurate cases they acted like a charm, the disease yielding in a day or two to this remedy, after resisting the bark for months, and when they had been thrown in the largest doses.

TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.

The only remedy ever discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

DR. HAHN'S TRUE AND GENUINE GERMAN CORN PLAISTER. Forcibly removing their root and branch without giving pain.

DR. HAMILTON'S GRAND RESTORATIVE.

It is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures - Juvenile indolence - violence in climate - unwholesome to the constitution - the immoderate use of strong liquors - the use of any other drastic or purgative - the use of the diaphoretic to simulate a crisis - a period of life - bad habits, &c. &c.

It is also proved by long and extensive experience to be infallibly unparalleled in the cure of the following disorders: Violent cramps in the stomach and bowels, Nervous disorder, Confusions, Indigestion, Losses of spirits, Loss of appetite, Impurities of the blood, Involuntary emissions, Hysterical affections, Obdurate Jaundice, Liver weakness, &c. &c.

The principal operation of this remedy is on the stomach, relaxing the digestive powers and sending forth from that organ new health and vigor into every part of the system. It purifies and purifies the blood without emaciating the body, and without exciting too violently the nervous system, strengthening the secretory vessels and the general habit; bring back the muscular fibres to their natural elasticity, and restores the nutrition which moderate evacuations have destroyed and whole limbs had thrown the whole frame into languor and debility.

In cases of extremity, where the long prevalence and obduracy of disease has brought on a general impoverishment of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh which no nourishment or cordial could repair, a persevering use of this medicine has performed the most astonishing cures.

HAMILTON'S ESSENCE AND EXTRACT OF MUSTARD.

A safe and efficacious remedy for rheumatism, joint palsy, sprain and bruises, white swellings, old sores, and relaxations, numbness and weakness of the joints, stiffness of the neck, pains of the face, head ache, felled face, frozen limbs, and every family complaint. It prevents chilblains, & clogged hands, and the ill effects of getting wet or damped the feet.

The extract is celebrated for removing cold and windy complaints in the stomach and bowels, flying pains, and other paralytic affections.

The testimony of the friends, and daily experience fully convince the superiority of the above medicines over all others, in the cure of the maladies we have enumerated.

Letter from Dr. Weatherburn. Wythe county, Virg. October 7, 1801.

Gentlemen, I purchased at your shop the preparations you call Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, which I believe has perfectly removed a chronic rheumatism of the right hand named Statica, or of the hip joint under which I had laboured for a long time, and which had baffled every article in Materia Medica, and every mode of treatment received into practice for the cure of this obdurate disease.

If you think this letter may be useful, you are at liberty to make it public.

P. WEATHERBURN.
Messrs. R. Lee & Co.

DR. HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

The operation of these Pills is perfectly mild, as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid ferments - to restore and amend the appetite to procure a free perspiration, and thereby prevent costiveness which is often attended with fatal consequences - a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing humoral costiveness - indigestion in the stomach, feverish head ache - and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

PERSIAN LOTION.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in preventing and removing blemishes of the face and skin of every kind, particularly freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, facial tetter, ring worms, lunations, prickly heat, premature wrinkles, &c. The Persian Lotion is a mild, refreshing mixture, which renders the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, render the skin delicately soft and smooth, improving the complexion and restoring the bloom of youth.

DR. HAHN'S GENUINE EYE WATER.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident - redness of the eyes, humors, itching, and fluxes on the eyes, never failing to cure them, and which frequently succeed the small pox, measles and fevers & wonderfully strengthening a weak sight - I have had experience of its excellent virtues when nearly deprived of sight.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation cures and fortifies the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and is so efficacious in restoring the teeth to their original whiteness and firmness, and so free from a pernicious time and fault, which is often the case of all other preparations, which is so efficacious in restoring the teeth to their original whiteness and firmness, and so free from a pernicious time and fault, which is often the case of all other preparations.

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE.

Is recommended (particularly to the ladies) as an elegant and pleasant preparation for chapped and sore lips, and every blemish and inconvenience occasioned by colds, fevers, &c. speedily restoring a beautiful rosy colour and delicate softness to the lips.

THE ANODYNE ELIXIR FOR THE CURE OF VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.

The patent Indian Vegetable Specific, prepared by Dr. LEROUX.

CHURCH'S COUGH DROPS.

HAMILTON'S WORM-DESTRUCTING LOZENGES.

Dispersions of worm, and its symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, the Tape, or large round worm, the Ascaris, or short flat white worm, the Ascaris, or small round worm, and the Ascaris, or tape worm, which is called from its resemblance to tape. This is often found in the bowels, and is so destructive to the health, and so difficult to remove, that it is often the cause of death.

Among the symptoms attending worms, are, disagreeable breath, especially in the morning, bad and sour odour from the mouth, and about the face, convulsions and epileptic fits, and functional privation of speech - starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep - irregular appetite, sometimes loathing of food, and sometimes voracious - purging with light and frothy mucus - large and irregular stools - belly-pains and colic at the navel - pain in the head and thighs with looseness of stools - high fever, with small and irregular pulse - large and irregular stools - belly-pains and colic at the navel - pain in the head and thighs with looseness of stools - high fever, with small and irregular pulse.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should immediately resort to HAMILTON'S WORM-DESTRUCTING LOZENGES, which have been found to be the most efficacious remedy in all complaints similar to those above described.

This medicine, which is innocent and mild, acts in a certain and efficacious manner, and is so simple, that the youngest child, or the most delicate person, may take it, and no harm will be done; but with removing worms, it cleanses the stomach and bowels, and restores the system to its natural state, particularly that timely humor from whence worms and many still disorders proceed.

Children generally take this medicine with eager pleasure, having a pleasing appearance and agreeable taste.

As upwards of a hundred and twenty thousand persons of both sexes, and of every age, have received perfect relief from this medicine, and as a number of certificates of cures may be seen, in addition to those already published.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children, a dreadful disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our cities. It is like, with the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has been used with good effect, as a great means when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint, particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Letter from Mr. Benj. Williams, No. 57, Baltimore Street, two doors above South Gay Street.

I have a son six years of age, who for four years past has been generally in a very unhealthy state, particularly in the summer, frequently afflicted with a complaint, which the whole of his little frame was wasting, his breath became fetid, an almost constant itching of the nose was excited, with other alarming symptoms. During the course of the above period, he has been attended by one of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore was successively cured.

Each of these gentlemen in their turn declared worms to be the cause of his disorder, and each had their little attempts to expel them, but all in vain, with a variety of other medicines were administered without the least success. It was once pronounced impossible for the child to live many hours.

I had frequently heard of your Worm Destructing Lozenges, but like many others, did not think highly of it as a cheap medicine, until a gentleman of my acquaintance (Mr. Wm. S. Moor) in whose family they had been used with good effect, advised me to make a trial of them. I accordingly gave my son a dose, agreeable to directions, which soon expelled eight worms, some of them about 12 inches in length; a few more were expelled in the course of the next day, and I dare be affirmed, no worm appeared. The child recovered, and now enjoys a good state of health.

TAKE NOTICE

ON Monday last, I lost my Pocket Book in Lexington containing a number of valuable papers, together with bank notes to the amount of sixty dollars. I have received the pocket book by the hands of Col. Wm. Irvine, delivered to him by the hands of a gentleman at Mr. Pollock's tavern.

The papers that are missing, is one bank note of twenty dollars assigned to me from James M'Connell, a bond upon Green Clay for the conveyance of 4,000 acres of land, one upon Jacob Miller for 400 acres, and a bond upon James Grier, on Ramped paper for $28 dollars, supposing those papers to have dropped out of the book before or unknown to the gentleman who found it. I will handily reward any person who will deliver all or any of the papers to me living in Madison county.

(From a New-York paper.)

On the illuminations took place in London on account of the peace, the house of William Cobbett, book-eller, in Pall-mall (the notorious Peter Porcupine) in confederacy with the spirit of anti-pacific darkness which distinguished it on former illuminations for the signature of preliminaries, remained inexorably opaque. The mob, with equal confidence took umbrage, and vented their indignation on the windows, fences, shutters, and everything about the front of the house that was not impregnable to bludgeons and paving-stones.

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

ORIGINAL.

THE MOURNER.

In imitation of the style of SIMONIDES.

SAD o'er the pit my wand'ring fancy flies,
And throng'd dreams like midnight spectres rise;
When gaily youth that liv'd in other years,
Knew no corroding ill, no boding fears;
Walk'd pensive on, indulging golden dreams,
Now, lo! one gloomy thought doth his schemes—
On Hope's bold eagle wing it soar'd sublime,
Nor knew what ill was borne by canker'd time.
To me what fun has reach'd her highest noon,
Ah! fancy's any dream has had too soon;
Dark recollection bears my soul away,
And wild imagination claims the way.
When yielding pleasure laze'd e'er my care,
And led my wand'ring steps to court the fair—
Ah! then, 'twas bliss her golden myrtle waves,
And Cyrian shades entic'd my soul to love;
To the lov'd teens, when e'en I lov'd my flies,
Hope, her companion, kept me ever nigh;
Now to me none the genuine walk beguiles,
To roam on beauty's charms, and count her smiles.
For me no more the woodland warblers sing,
Nor the mild moon her calm, expressive ring;
No more for me the nut-brown forests rise,
Shout their tall heads and mingle with the skies.
The wood rose could not spring where e'er I rove;
Rushion of innocence and her life I love.
The fountains fade, and all the host of heaven
Grow darkling dim, by wild confusions driven.
So speaks the MOURNER when his hope has flown,
And all his circling yearning joy is gone.

ANECDOTE.

At the time when there was an agreement among the Irish people, not to import English manufactures of any kind, in order to bring England to a compliance with their demands for a free trade, the mate of a vessel laden with London porter, filled up a couple of casks with the liquor, and in the most insidious manner mixed up the wharf, crying out, "Here's brandy, drink and clubbing, you fellows." A coal-heaver coolly walking up, gave him a blow, which laid him sprawling in the gutter. "And there," says he, "honey, you are now provided for—there's washing and lodging for you."
